

Movers & Shakers

Betsy Schiffman

May 28, 2004

Who's buying, who's selling in the world of high-end real estate:

Summer At The Kennedy's

The Hyannis Port, Mass., home of Joan Kennedy, ex-wife of Senator Edward "Ted" Kennedy, is available to rent for the month of July, at a cool price of $50,000. The house is on Squaw Island, a private island at the tip of Hyannis Port, and it is across the street from the "Summer White House" of President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy. It has six bedrooms, six bathrooms and a private beach on Nantucket Sound. It sits on an acre. Joan and Ted bought the house in the 1960s, and when the couple divorced in 1982, Joan reportedly got the Squaw Island house as part of the settlement. The property is listed with Paul Grover of Kinlin Grover GMAC Real Estate in Osterville.